

DAYS ON RETREAT.
RECOLLECTION IN ORDER
TO KNOW GOD,
TO KNOW YOURSELF
AND THUS TO MAKE PROGRESS.
A NECESSARY TIME FOR DISCOVERING WHERE AND HOW YOU SHOULD CHANGE YOUR LIFE.
WHAT SHOULD I DO?
WHAT SHOULD I AVOID?

ST. JOSEMARIA ESCRIVA

The conference center is located on 840 acres in the Blue Ridge mountain region of Virginia. Walking trails, scenic views, peaceful meadows and a shrine dedicated to Our Lady, help those attending the retreats to maintain a spirit of prayer and recollection. All retreats at Longlea Conference Center are conducted by priests of Opus Dei, a personal Prelature of the Catholic Church.

RETREATS 2012

for College and Young Professional Men

WHY MAKE A RETREAT?

We absolutely need to take time out, to be quiet, to pray and to reflect on our life and on our relationship with God. These relaxed weekend retreats are not a luxury to be savored by a pious few; they are absolutely necessary for our soul.

The major themes of the retreat include:

- ♦ Responding to our Christian vocation.
- ♦ Getting to know and love Jesus Christ.
- ♦ The Christian life is a continual conversion.
- ♦ Imitation of Christ in the middle of the world.

- ♦ You are called to holiness and apostolate.
- ♦ The need to develop a prayer life.
- ♦ Serving Christ through our work and study.

Each full day of the retreat includes Holy Mass and several conferences in the chapel, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and recitation of the rosary. The priest conducting the retreat is available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and for spiritual direction. Persons who cannot afford to pay the full amount are encouraged to attend the retreat and arrange to pay what they can when they can.
