

Longlea Conference Center
Young Men's Retreats
January 6-8, February 10-12, 2012

We absolutely need to take time out for an annual retreat -- to be quiet, to pray and to reflect on our life with God. These relaxed weekend retreats are not a luxury to be savored by a pious few; they are an absolute necessity for our soul.

The retreat will be conducted by a priest of Opus Dei, a personal prelature of the Catholic Church.

The major themes of the retreat are these:

- Understanding and responding to our Christian vocation.
- Getting to know and love Jesus Christ.
- The Christian life is a continual conversion.
- Imitation of Christ in the middle of the world
- You are called to holiness and apostolate.
- The need to develop a personal prayer life.
- Serving Christ through our study and work

Location:
Longlea Conference Center

We will begin at 5 p.m. on Friday, and end on Sunday at 2 p.m. after lunch.
